Sources of islamic law

by: Anwar ul haq

Definition of sources of islamic law:

- the sources of islamic law is main reference to identify and determine all about islamic law.

- islamic law is given by Allah not by rulers

- sources os islamic law are evidence that a valid proof for the injunctions.

- sources os islamic law remain valid whether recognized by the state or not.

- the sources of islamic is covering the muslim relationship with Allah ,with his fellow beings and with his society and nation.

Scope of sources of religion & islamic law:

- All activities of muslims life counted as worship.
- to ensure all actions are performed by the obligation.

Philosphy of sources of religion & islamic law:

- maintaining life,
- protection of belief
- preservation of honour & integrity
- protection of property.